

EAST CHICAGO AND INDIANA HARBOR

EAST CHICAGO

The Order of the Eastern Star will hold a meeting tonight in Masonic hall and two new members will be initiated in the lodge. After the work of the evening is finished a lunch will be served by a committee of the ladies of which Mrs. Chas. E. Fowler is chairman, assisted by Mesdames Crumme, J. O. Parks, C. Fichter, Bowen, Will Jones and Ethel Peterson.

The next dance at East Chicago Rink is Saturday, June 4th. Gentlemen 50 cents. Ladies free.

Miss Ella Lyons, teacher of English in the Elkhart high school will arrive Saturday for a few days' visit with Mrs. A. H. W. Johnson, on Magoun avenue.

George Fisher, who is sick with pleurisy, is reported better.

Mrs. Ed. Higgins of Magoun avenue is spending a week with Mr. Higgins' parents in Waukegan. Mr. Higgins will join her there Saturday night and spend Sunday.

Z. B. Campbell of the city civil engineering staff, left yesterday for a few days' visit at his old home in Ada, O. The commencement exercises of the Ohio Northern university, which is located there, are in progress, and President Taft will deliver the class address. As this school is Mr. Campbell's alma mater, he expects to have a grand time renewing old friendships.

Section B of the Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church held a meeting yesterday at the home of Mrs. August Johnson. This society will serve at the reception and banquet to be given by the high school juniors June 14th.

Victor Badaux, who had an operation for appendicitis performed on him a week ago yesterday, will be brought home from St. Margaret's hospital this evening.

BURNS AND SAM LANGFORD SIGNED

Los Angeles, June 2.—Articles were signed today for a twenty-five round fight between Sam Langford and Tommy Burns, to take place here on Labor day. Burns will receive 60 ad Langford 40 per cent of a $25,000 purse. Each fighter will receive 25 per cent of the moving picture profits.

BLAME FIGHTER FOR OPPONENT'S DEATH

Fresno, Cal., June 2.—William G. King, a pugilist, was today found guilty of manslaughter in connection with the death of A. D. Russell, whom he recently fought. Russell was knocked out of the ring and fractured his skull in the fall, dying a few minutes later.

GOTCH THROWS POLE IN RECORD BREAKING TIME

FACTS ABOUT MATCH.

Principals—Frank Gotch, champion of the world, and Stanislaus Zbyszko, champion of Poland.
Winner—Gotch in two straight falls.
Time of falls—First, 6 1/4 seconds; second, 27 minutes and 36 seconds.
Attendance—Ten thousand.
Receipts—Forty thousand dollars (estimated).

Frank Gotch got to the Pole twice last night at the Coliseum, and he won't have to send his proof to the Danes.

The Iowa, champion of all champions at the wrestling game, made Zbyszko, his Polish challenger of the mat crowd, look like a tyro at the game of grapple by easily throwing the European twice inside of twenty-eight minutes, gaining the first fall in six and one-quarter seconds. Frank rushed out of his corner when time was called and diving at the legs, upset the Pole with that great American schoolboy hold.

In the second bout Gotch remembered the moving picture films were moving all the while and allowed the Pole to get behind him once or twice, but Frank never was within comet distance of danger and toyed with the Pole. That's the trite and proper description of the combat. Zbyszko could never have figured out Gotch's speed with a blue print.

The crowd expected Gotch to show speed, but it didn't look for the tremendous speed Frank brought with him last night. Most of the time Zbyszko was reaching for Frank a fraction of an second after Gotch passed that place.

Zbyszko's boasted strength never got a chance to show. As one fan remarked after the bout, "Zbyszko couldn't beat Gotch with four arms and three legs." When Frank put the pole away for the second and decisive fall, the frenzied crowd broke through the ropes and carried the champion on its shoulders to the dressing room.

At the conclusion of the match Referee Fleming said: "Gotch really won three falls, he threw the Pole twice in the first bout, I tapped him a winner, but evidently he didn't feel me, for he went along and within two seconds put Zbyszko down with the same hold that gained him what I might call fall A."

CUBS START INVASION BY THUMPING DOVES

Overall Has Boston Well in Hand All the Way and Is Victor by 5 to 1.

Boston, June 2.—The Chicago cubs began their 1910 invasion of the eastern half of the circuit here yesterday afternoon with a 5 to 1 triumph over the Boston Doves, and the Chance troops did not have to half try at that. Overall had the birdie fling up in turn and eating out of his hand from start to finish, only now and then a dove grabbing a kernel or two more than Overall intended he should have. Brown, for Boston, pitched good ball, but his support was ragged in spots, and the cubs' seven hits nearly all counted toward runs.

As games go, it was rather a mild affair, from a spectator's viewpoint. The really clever bits of fielding were few and the hitting was not only scarce, but generally light, two two-baggers being the only extra base singles up to the ninth.

The cubs started in as if they meant business, right in the first inning, and it turned out that they did. Evers, first man up, scored. However, the credit—or discredit—for this good beginning must go in large measure to the doves. After Brown had provided free transportation to Evers, Sheppard helped the cause along with a sacrifice, advancing Johnny to second.

OTTO SIELOFF IS "COMING BACK."

Otto Sieloff, a former terror of the lightweight ranks, yesterday came out of retirement and announced that he was willing to fight anybody who does not weigh more than a ton. Otto, who is 36 years old, believes there are a few dicks left in his system and wants matches with light or welterweight boxers.

WOLGAST DECIDES JUNE 10 DATE O. K.

Milwaukee, June 2.—The ten round battle between Ad Wolgast, lightweight champion of the world, and Jack Redmond, scheduled to be held here on June 10, will take place as originally agreed upon. Wolgast asked this afternoon to have it postponed to June 24, but later agreed to fight on the original date, June 10.

ZBYSZKO SAYS GOTCH WON WITH UNFAIR TACTICS

BY STANISLAUS ZBYSZKO.
I lost on a handshake, or rather on a handshake that should have occurred, but didn't. When I faced Gotch in the first bout, I extended him my hand courteously and looked for him to do the same. Now what does he do? He dives under my extended arm, grabs me around the legs and, of course, upsets me. Is that fair play? It may be here. I think it is so considered, judging by the crowd's approval, but it is not fair play in my country or in any part of Europe. I am going back home in a few days, but I'll be back, and when I return I'm going to beat Gotch if he gives me another trial.

BIG FIGHT A FAKE, DECLARES GOVERNOR

Jeffries-Johnson Affair Is a "Frameup."

"I think the Jeffries-Johnson fight is a frameup and that Johnson has no chance to win and doesn't expect to win. I am convinced that Jeffries was assured he would be the winner before he consented to re-enter the game, and that Johnson has been offered, and has agreed to accept, a big sum and an interest in the moving picture receipts to let Jeffries win, and thus throw the championship back to the white race." Governor J. N. Gillette of California thus expressed himself concerning the heavyweight championship fight which is to take place in San Francisco on July 4. Governor Gillette was seen at the Congress hotel, where he stopped over for the day on his way home from Washington. The governor did not mince his words.

"I believe it's a 'frameup,'" he repeated. "There was no chance to get Jeffries in the ring again, in my opinion, unless he was assured in advance of victory. Jeffries doesn't need the money, and while he may be patriotic and willing to bear the white man's burden, he had too much to lose in prestige to take a chance on defeat."

LEMBERG WINS DERBY

Fairie's Entry Leads Green-back by Narrow Margin at Epsom Downs.

London, June 1.—This, the one hundred and thirty-first Epsom Derby, will go down in the history of the English turf as the "black Derby." A nearly solid mass of black-garbed men, with only an occasional straw hat to remind the somberness, filled the stands and the natural amphitheater rising above the course as Mr. Fairie's Lemberg, favorite in the betting, won this most notable race in the world in a driving finish.

Sir John Thursty's Greenback was second and A. P. Cunliffe's Charles O'Malley third. Lord Roseberry's Nell Gow, with Danny Maher in the saddle, was fourth. From the start the four horses named had the race to themselves. Fifteen horses ran.

JEFFRIES CUTS OUT HOT PACE

Rowardennan, Cal., June 2.—"Hit hard," was the order today at James J. Jeffries' camp when the former champion began boxing after a day off of more than a week.

Bob Armstrong was the first man up. He rushed Jeffries from the start and set a lively pace for three rounds. Joe Chovinski came next for three rounds and the pair stepped around in a clever sparring exhibition. Chovinski displayed a more skill than usual. The main event, however, was the two round go with Sam Berger, who came last. Jeffries was evidently saving up for his manager and they went it in a slam-bang fashion, roughing it around the ring until it looked like a good old knockdown and drag-out battle.
